SENATE BILL

No. 781

Introduced by Senator Leno

February 27, 2009

An act to add Section 1569.683 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to residential care facilities for the elderly.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 781, as amended, Leno. Eviction procedure.

Existing law, the California Residential Care Facilities for the Elderly Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of residential care facilities for the elderly by the State Department of Social Services. Under existing law, a violation of these provisions is a crime.

Existing law sets forth notice and other requirements for a residential care facility for the elderly to evict a resident.

This bill would, in addition, require that a licensee who sends an eviction notice to include specified information, including, but not limited to, information regarding the resident's right to file a complaint. By expanding the definition of an existing crime, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is
2 in the best interests of the residents of residential care facilities for
3 the elderly to ensure that eviction and transfer notices used by
4 these facilities do not violate residents' rights.

5 (b) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this 6 act to establish procedures to protect the rights of the residents in
7 residential care facilities for the elderly and to provide the residents
8 with the information necessary to defend those rights.
